

RESOURCES

TO SUPPORT DISTANCE LEARNING 2020-2021

1 Parent Guide to Digital Learning

This comprehensive resource is designed to support parents in keeping their children safely connected and learning. Find information on Chromebooks and Internet access, communicating with teachers and schools, accessing digital curriculum, digital citizenship, and more. Download CUSD's Parent Guide to Digital Learning HERE.

2 CUSD Tech Help

Wi-fi out of whack? Chromebook not working correctly?

Still think Zoom means "go really fast?" Our CUSD Tech team is your lifeline for solving Technology issues that impact learning. Visit our Technology Helpdesk for support by phone or chat, and ask about our dedicated Internet Liaison for help establishing or getting the most out of an Internet connection.

3 "Thrive" Parent Webinar Series

This five-part series is designed to help families equip their children with tools, skills, and behaviors that support growth and well-being in all facets of life, including academics. Topics range from establishing limits, structure, and routines to communicating with kids, coping with stress, and fostering resilience. View the webinars HERE (be sure device volume is on).

4 Club Z Tutoring

Ceres Unified has contracted with the online tutoring service Club Z to provide 4 hours of FREE online tutoring for each enrolled CUSD PreK-12 student! Please REGISTER HERE by November 1, 2020 (be sure to submit a separate form for each child you wish to receive tutoring). Club Z will then reach out to families to schedule tutoring sessions.

5 Social-emotional Support

Click HERE to see a list of resources available during campus closures. In addition, call the Stanislaus County Behavioral Health & Wellness Warmline at (209) 558-4600, or dial 2-1-1 for information and support related to basic needs, health, domestic situations and more. Both numbers are free and confidential 24 hours/day, 7 days/week.

6 Hazel Health

All CUSD students now have access to FREE virtual doctor visits from the comfort of home! These on-demand, virtual appointments are intended to provide CUSD students with safe, convenient access to quality medical support while campuses and district health offices are closed. Click HERE to create a Hazel Health account and contact a doctor.
